- Reflections from:
  - Prof Sir Paul Collier CBE, International Growth Centre
  - Mayor Marvin Rees, Bristol City Council
- Discussion and Q&A
- Summing up and Session Close

6

Aims of the Strategic Capacity Development Component:

- Reduce the barriers to implementation
- Increase the impact of the interventions and their long-term sustainability
- Promote wider engagement: horizontally between cities and vertically between national government, local government and a range of other stakeholders
- Increase the potential for shared learnings both within the programme and beyond
- Contribute to delivery of the 2030 UN Agenda for Sustainable Development

7

The Strategic Capacity Development Component will comprise:

- 1. The Thematic Programme
- 2. A tailor-made Country Focused Programme
- 3. A series of City-to City Knowledge Exchanges

It will complement and align with the Delivery Partners capacity development activities together with the SDG Assessment Tool and integrate with the Knowledge Platform.
